Deadlines:

The deadline to place advertisement or an article to feature your business or event is due the 15th of the month prior to printing. For example: January issue - the information for your ad or article must be supplied by December 15th. The same applies to each month following.

Submitted articles will be edited and placed according to available space. Articles must be tastefully written, as placement is at the discretion of the editor and publisher.

No Contracts:

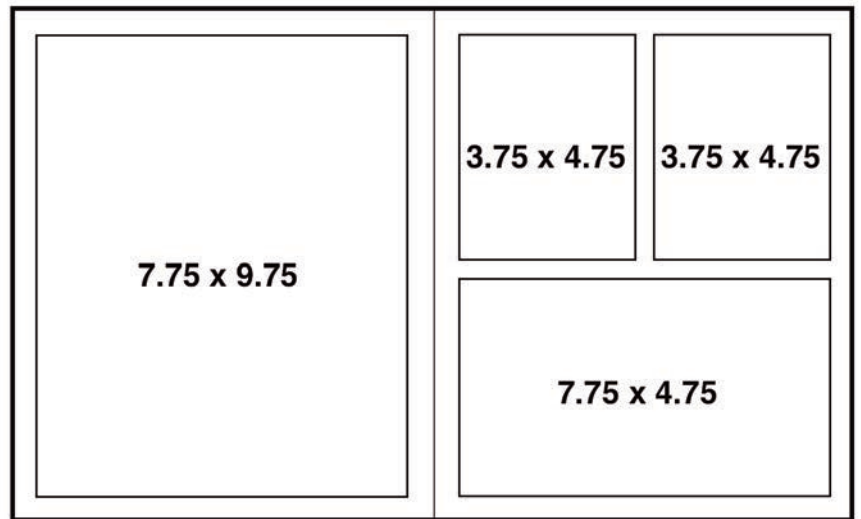

Advertisers choose the months they wish to place an ad. There are no contracts and no pressure to stay in. There is no additional cost involved for the creation of the ads.
